How to Create a Dialectical Journal for The Giver

Setting Up Your Dialectical Journal

Starting your dialectical journal is simple but requires a clear structure to stay organized. Here's a straightforward way to set it up:

1. Divide your page into two columns: On the left, write the quote or passage from The Giver. On the right, write your response.
2. Number your entries: This helps you track your progress and makes it easier to reference specific sections later.
3. Include page numbers or chapter references: This is useful for locating the passage quickly.

Choosing Quotes from The Giver

Selecting the right quotes is key to a successful dialectical journal. Look for passages that:

Quote from The Giver	Response/Analysis
"The worst part of holding the memories is not the pain. It's the loneliness of it. Memories need to be shared." (Chapter 20)	This quote reveals the emotional burden Jonas carries as the Receiver of Memory. It highlights the theme of isolation that knowledge can bring, especially when one cannot share their experiences with others. It makes me think about how important community and sharing are in human life.

“We gained control of many things. But we had to let go of others.” (Chapter 12)	This line captures the trade-offs in Jonas’s society—security and order come at the cost of freedom and individuality. It raises questions about what we are willing to sacrifice for comfort and safety. It also makes me reflect on modern society and how much control we really have.
“If everything's the same, then there aren't any choices!” (Chapter 20)	Jonas’s realization here is a pivotal moment in the novel. It challenges the community’s principle of Sameness and emphasizes the value of choice as a fundamental human right. This quote connects to broader discussions about free will and the dangers of conformity.

Analyzing Sample Entries: How Dialectical Journals Illuminate The Giver

To fully appreciate the impact of a dialectical journal, it is instructive to analyze sample entries that demonstrate how readers engage with The Giver.

Entry 1: Exploring the Theme of Sameness

Quote: “We gained control of many things. But we had to let go of others.” Response: This statement encapsulates the community’s obsession with order and predictability. The phrase “had to let go” implies sacrifice, prompting readers to consider what is lost in the pursuit of societal control. It raises ethical questions about the value of freedom and diversity versus security and uniformity.

Entry 2: The Role of Memory and Pain

Quote: “The worst part of holding the memories is not the pain. It’s the loneliness of it. Memories need to be shared.” Response: This poignant reflection from the Giver underscores a central paradox—while memories bring pain, they also foster connection and empathy. The isolation experienced by the Giver highlights how the community’s suppression of history creates emotional detachment, which the dialectical journal prompts readers to critically evaluate.

Entry 3: Jonas’s Awakening

Quote: “He felt such love for Asher and for his parents. But it was different from what he had felt before.” Response: Jonas’s evolving feelings mark a turning point in the novel. Adjusting screen settings plays a crucial role in reading comfort. Most reading apps allow you to customize font size, font style, line spacing, and background color.
